

Nuu-chah-nulth Land and Waters with łaʔuuk/Gisèle Maria Martin

Resident guests and visitors in Tofino are invited to an introduction session with Gisèle Maria Martin to learn about Indigenous Nuučaanuł/Nuu-chah-nulth Cultural Lifeways, protocols, laws, and living teachings which protect this beautiful place, as well as early and ongoing contact and the importance of language.

Gisèle is a Cultural Lifeways Guardian, language educator, storyteller and artist in the Tla-o-qui-aht Tribal Parks located in the ȥaaȥuuli of the łaʔuukʷiʔath ȥawiiȥ.

Date: August 27th

Time: 3pm-5pm

Free event

Location: Tofino Visitor Center,
1426 Pacific Rim Highway

RSVP: tourismtofino.com/events/

Gisèle Maria Martin